

SCAC Cheat Sheet

(for anyone who doesn't know and wants to!)

What is SCAC?

“Southern California Alateen Conference”

The purpose is for Alateen members to share their Experience, Strength and Hope with each other, and to learn, grow and have fun!

SCAC is “a safe and supportive opportunity for Alateen members in the Southern California Area to share experience, strength and hope, with other Alateens. SCAC is based on the Twelve Steps, the Twelve Traditions and the Twelve Concepts of the Al-Anon/Alateen Family Groups. The conference is known to be very effective in increasing the growth and stability of Alateen members and Alateen groups throughout Southern California. From Section 1.2: Purpose of the SCAC By-Laws, voted on at the October 2021 Special Assembly of Southern California World Service

How long is SCAC?

It's usually a weekend event, starting late Friday afternoon and ending around noon on Sunday.

Who is in charge?

As an Alateen Conference, the Alateen Committee works together with the AMIAS Committee to ensure a safe, loving, and accepting conference. Alateens take the lead on matters of program, publicity, Ways and Means, hospitality and literature.

How can I get more information about the conference?

The documents presented to the October 2021 Special Assembly are available on the SCWS website (scws-al-anon.org) under the Alateen tab. You can also reach out to the Area Alateen Sponsor Coordinator at alateensponsor@scws-al-anon.org
