

SCAC Behavior Requirements

All attendees are expected to abide by the Area Alateen Safety & Behavioral Requirements and the additional SCAC Behavior Requirements as stated below.

1. Alateens and AMIASs are expected to be respectful toward all SCAC attendees and display appropriate behavior during SCAC. Your behavior can attract or turn away a potential new member to the program!
2. Alateens will check-in with their Group AMIASs at the times stated on the agenda and sign out with them before leaving SCAC.
3. Prescription medications must be turned in to the Nurse during registration check-in and must be in their original bottle with your name listed as the intended user.
4. Alateens and AMIASs are required to attend all activities stated on the agenda (unless it is marked as an Optional activity or you are assigned a task that prevents you from attending the activity).
5. To protect the anonymity of all attendees, photos or videos pertaining to SCAC or SCAC-related events may not be posted on any website accessible to the public (including social media accounts).
6. Vehicles driven to and from SCAC venue must be parked in designated locations on campus.
7. Skateboards, or other wheeled devices are not allowed on campus. (Unless medically required)
8. Purchasing or sales of merchandise is forbidden other than as approved by the SCAC Committee.
9. Phones must be off and out of sight during meetings.
10. All participants must sleep in the room assigned to you. No sleeping in the lobby, hallway, or switching rooms. You must be in your assigned room between midnight and 6am.
11. Do not move furniture or remove property belonging in the dorm room or lobby.
12. You will be financially responsible for the loss of your room key or meal card.
13. Per the facility contract, food may not be permitted in the dorm. (additional guidance needed from the facility)
14. Adhere to rules and regulations of the hosting facility.

The following are cause for being sent home.

1. Any Alateen or AMIAS that leaves the event boundaries will be considered as "checked out" and will not be permitted to return to SCAC.
2. Alateens and AMIASs are allowed to enter only the dorm building they have been assigned to (unless your assigned task requires entry; e.g., the SCAC Nurse).
3. An AMIAS must not be alone in a room with a closed door with any Alateen.
4. Alateens and AMIASs are expected to respect the property of the facility and others. You will be held responsible for damages you intentionally cause. In addition to being sent home, consequences will include financial responsibility
5. Possession of alcohol, drugs (legal or illegal), or weapons of any kind is forbidden at Alateen events.
6. SCAC is a non-smoking event, including vaping.
7. Sexual activity is prohibited for all in attendance while at the conference. (Per Guidelines G-16)
8. Any other behaviors that may be deemed serious enough to be cause for sending a participant home.

Minors: Your parent, guardian, or emergency contact will be contacted so they can make arrangements for your removal from the facility property. If no authorized adult is available, the emergency contact noted on the registration form will be contacted.

Adults (18 and older): You will be responsible for your own transportation and expected to leave immediately.
